Dear Senator:

I recognize that your schedule must be extremely busy these days, but we read about your admiration for the MTV hit show "The Hills" and have an opportunity for you: how would you like to play Brody Jenner in Heavy.com's version—"Over the Hills?" We've saved the best Brody scenes just for you, and in our version, Heidi, Spencer and Lauren are card-carrying AARP members. Just think about it; you could have your choice of Lauren or Jen Bunny as your "running mate." I'm sure your staffers have already briefed you on our series, but here is a link that will take you to the Internet to review the first four episodes: <http://www.heavy.com/channel/216823> (if you don't know what the Internet is, you may want to have your staff contact al.gore@gmail.com). Please let us know if you're up for the mission—we would be honored to have you join the Heavy family.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Jellinek
Vice President of Entertainment
